

When is the FCC going to take care of other problem that are more pressing than taking away some of the entertainment that we get from our XM radio, The local radio stations do not give us the up to date info that we get from XM so why can't you leave it alone.John